

Connexion Wins Prestigious AD Giving Back Award

Science Connexion Program is recognized at Affiliated Distributor's North American meeting.

Buffalo Grove, IL (PRWEB) November 10, 2018 - Connexion is proud to announce the acceptance of the 2018 Giving Back Award from Affiliated Distributors during their 2018 North American meeting. Accepting the award was Daniel Dobski, Connexion's Director of Marketing and architect of their winning Science Connexion program.

"With so many worthwhile social causes being considered by the AD Awards committee, I'm honored that the work that we do in re-purposing school science equipment, has earned this level of recognition" Said Dobski. Science Connexion provides a unique service for Chicago area K-12 schools whereby schools can donate their used, but functional lab equipment and redirect these assets to underfunded schools. Connexion provides their logistics services free of charge for pick up and delivers. Additionally, Connexion has provides an online portal allowing school faculty members a convenient means to donate and order equipment.
